Stef Soto is the reigning Taco Queen of Los Angeles. Her acclaimed cookbook, Taco Queen, is a celebration of Mexican cuisine and a testament to her passion for food. In this book, Stef shares her favorite recipes for tacos, salsas, and sides, all inspired by her Mexican heritage and her years of experience cooking in Los Angeles.

Stef's journey to becoming the Taco Queen began in her grandmother's kitchen in Mexico City. She grew up watching her grandmother cook traditional Mexican dishes, and she quickly developed a love of food and cooking. When Stef moved to Los Angeles, she brought her passion for Mexican cuisine with her. She started cooking for friends and family, and eventually she opened her own taqueria, Guelaguetza. Guelaguetza has become one of the most popular taquerias in Los Angeles, and Stef has become known for her delicious tacos and her warm hospitality.

In her cookbook, Taco Queen, Stef shares her recipes for some of her most popular tacos, including her famous al pastor tacos, her carnitas tacos, and her barbacoa tacos. She also includes recipes for a variety of salsas, sides, and desserts. The book is beautifully illustrated with photographs of Stef's tacos and her family and friends. It is a must-have for anyone who loves Mexican food or who is interested in learning more about Mexican culture.

Stef Soto is a true ambassador for Mexican cuisine. Her passion for food is evident in everything she does, from her cooking to her writing to her work in the community. Taco Queen is a celebration of Mexican food and culture, and it is sure to inspire you to cook more Mexican food at home.
