Alzheimer's disease is a cruel and devastating disease that affects millions of people worldwide. It robs people of their memories, their independence, and their dignity. And it takes a heavy toll on their loved ones, who often feel helpless and overwhelmed.

Kimberly Nye knows firsthand the challenges of Alzheimer's disease. Her mother was diagnosed with the disease in 2006, and Nye spent the next several years caring for her. During that time, she learned a great deal about Alzheimer's and how to cope with its effects.

In her book, This Is Alzheimer's, Nye shares her experiences and insights with other caregivers. She offers practical advice on how to care for a loved one with Alzheimer's, as well as emotional support for those who are struggling with the disease.

This Is Alzheimer's is a valuable resource for anyone who is affected by Alzheimer's disease. It is a book that offers hope, support, and guidance during a difficult time.
