About the Book

In his captivating memoir, "World In My Eyes," legendary radio and TV host Richard Blade takes readers on an unforgettable journey through his extraordinary life. From his humble beginnings in a small town to his rise to fame as a beloved music personality, Blade shares intimate stories, poignant reflections, and rare insights that paint a vivid portrait of his remarkable career and personal experiences.

With his signature wit and infectious enthusiasm, Blade recounts his early days as a struggling musician, his fortuitous encounter with Rodney Bingenheimer that launched his broadcasting career, and his rise to prominence as the host of the iconic radio show "The Electric Hour" on KROQ-FM in Los Angeles. Along the way, he shares behind-the-scenes anecdotes about his encounters with countless music legends, including The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, David Bowie, and Madonna.

Beyond his storied career in music, Blade also delves into his personal life, exploring his struggles with addiction, his triumphs over adversity, and the enduring friendships that have shaped him. With honesty and vulnerability, he reflects on the challenges and rewards of balancing a demanding career with the pursuit of personal fulfillment.

"World In My Eyes" is not just a memoir; it's a love letter to music, a celebration of pop culture, and an inspiring tale of perseverance and triumph. Through Blade's vivid storytelling and engaging prose, readers will gain a deeper appreciation for the power of music to connect, inspire, and transform lives.
